RELEASE OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY INFORMATION

1. Samaritan College collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the college. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the college to provide schooling to the students and to enable them to take part in all the activities of the college.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy Samaritan College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the college to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health Information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.
5. Samaritan College may disclose personal and sensitive information for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include to: other schools and teachers at those schools; government departments (including for policy and funding purposes); the Catholic Education Office, the South Australian Commission for Catholic Schools, the School's local parish and diocese, other related church agencies/entities, and Schools within other Dioceses; medical practitioners; people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches, volunteers, and counsellors; providers of learning and assessment tools; assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN); people providing administrative and financial services to the School; anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to; and anyone to whom the School is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.
6. From time to time, Samaritan College may be required to communicate to parents that personal information has been requested by the Commonwealth and State Governments and the Catholic Education Office
7. Samaritan College may disclose personal information (your name and address) to another Catholic school who may wish to provide you with information to assist you in choosing another Catholic school.
8. Personal Information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.
9. In situations where parents are separated, it is the policy of the college to release school reports to the mother and father of the student upon request. It is also our policy to allow both mother and father to attend parent/teacher interviews upon request. However, the college will abide by any court orders which prevent the release of such information.
10. Samaritan College may store personal information in the 'cloud' which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated outside Australia.
11. In the event of default of payment of fees, Samaritan College may refer the default to a debt collection agency. If this occurs, personal information will be disclosed to the agency and you will be responsible for the collection costs.
12. Samaritan College's Privacy Policy sets out how parents or students may seek access to personal information collected about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate

13. The college's Privacy Policy also sets out how you may complain about a breach of privacy and how Samaritan College will deal with such a complaint.
14. Samaritan College may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the college's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
15. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in college publications and online platforms (including website and facebook). Photographs of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions may be taken for publication in college publications and online platforms. The college obtains permission in the first year of the student's enrolment which covers their school life at Samaritan College. Should you wish to change those permissions, this must be done by completing a replacement Photograph/Video/Artwork Consent Form.
16. We may include students' and students' parents' contact details in a class list and School directory.
17. If you provide Samaritan College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the college and why, that they can access that information if they wish and that the college does not usually disclose the information to third parties.

PARENT/GUARDIAN DECLARATION

18. In applying to enrol my child at Samaritan College I/we accept that s/he will be educated in the Catholic faith within a Christian educational environment.
19. I/we accept that support of Samaritan College staff and cooperation concerning school activities is essential.
20. I/we accept that we will adhere to the Samaritan College's policies (which may be amended from time to time during my child's enrolment at Samaritan College) and any decision made by the College Principal.
21. I/we accept that participation in camps/excursions/retreats and internal school events is compulsory and an expectation of enrolment.
22. I/we accept that Samaritan College reserves the right to suspend or expel a student for serious or continued breaches of school rules, regulations and/or policies, including conduct which brings into disrepute the good name and reputation of the college.
23. I/we accept the standards Samaritan College sets regarding grooming, uniform and personal presentation.
24. I/we accept responsibility for the payment of tuition fees and other costs associated with the recovery of unpaid charges and/or the education of my/our child as determined and amended from time to time by Samaritan College (except where exemptions/remissions have been sought and granted).
25. I/we give consent for Samaritan College to contact any other Catholic school which my child has previously attended for the purpose of ascertaining my/our fee paying record.
26. I/we accept that Samaritan College does not accept liability for damage or loss of any personal possessions of students and that insurance for my child's personal possessions is my/our responsibility.
27. I/we declare that all of the information provided in this application is, to be best of my/our knowledge, true and accurate.

In signing this enrolment agreement, I acknowledge my responsibility and commitment to meeting the annual fee expectations of Samaritan College in accordance with the Fee Policy.

I acknowledge and accept all of the above terms and conditions (clauses 1-27)

(Both parents/guardians to sign if possible)
